YESTERDAY'S PAGEANT

Parade of Holy Name Society Imposing Spectacle - Alexandrians in Line.

The ideal weather of yesterday caused many Alexandrians not members of the Holy Name Society of St. Mary's Church to visit Washington yesterday afternoon for the purpose of witnessing the imposing spectacle incident to the monster parade of the members of the Society.
The Alexandria branch of the organization gathered at the Young Men's Lyceum Hall about noon where the procession was formed.
The band, composed of members of the Junior Holy Name Society, left the hall about 12:15 p. m., and proceeded up Royal to King street, marching up the latter thoroughfare to Washington street where they awaited the arrival of the train bearing the members of the society.
The members of St. Mary's Parish, about 150 men and boys, marshaled by James B. Martin, subsequently repaired to Prince and Royal streets where they boarded an electric train with many friends of the organization and left at 12:30 for Washington. Many others boarded the train when it stopped at different points in the city, and by the time it reached Spring Park the cars were densely packed.
Upon arriving in Washington St. Mary's Parish was given the place of honor at the head of the third division, forming the first section. At their head was St. Mary's Cadet Band.
James Roche bore the banner and Masters Shuman and Harrington were cord carriers.
Following the Alexandria delegation came the representatives of the various Washington parishes, St. Peter's being the first in line, with 400 men and boys and a band.
Boys of 9 and men of 70, as well as five women, were in line. Each carried a small pennant tied to a cane.
Protesting against perjury and profanity in speech, and making a public affirmation of their belief in the divinity of Jesus Christ, 12,000 members of the Society paraded the streets of the capital, passed in review before eminent Catholic clergy men on the balcony of the New Willard Hotel, and disbanded at the Washington monument grounds, after they had been addressed by their president, Col. Jerome H. Joyce, of Baltimore, and Judge William H. DeLaey, of Washington, and had received the benediction of the blessed sacrament and the papal blessing, the latter being given by the papal delegate, Mgr. Bonzano. The Rev. Father McNichols, of New York city, presided at the monument grounds. It is estimated that 50,000 persons attended the exercises.
The parade, which is said to have been the largest in the history of the Holy Name Society, began to move promptly at 2:30 o'clock, from Second and East Capitol streets; passed through the east grounds of the Capitol to B street, west on B street to First street, south on First street to Pennsylvania avenue, west on the avenue to Fifteenth street, thence south to the monument grounds. It required one hour and five minutes for the parade to pass the reviewing stand.

MANY DISORDERLY CASES

Officers Arrest Whites and Blacks in the House of a Colored Woman

Sergeant Scott and Officers Nicholson and Roland made a descent upon a house conducted by Alice Kitts, colored, in the northeastern section of the city between one and two o'clock yesterday morning. According to statements made by the officers, the proceedings were suggestive of the Seeley dinner. Twenty-six males and females were in the place at the time, all of whom were corralled and marched to the station house. About one-half of the party left collateral for their appearance this morning, and when the case was called eleven, including the proprietress of the place, were present. Alice Kitts was charged with keeping a disorderly house, but after listening to the testimony in the case, Justice Caton assessed a fine of $5 upon all who appeared. The others forfeited their collateral.
The following cases were disposed of:
Mat Williams, charged with vagrancy, was sent to the workhouse for 90 days.
Mary Beard, charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited her collateral by failing to appear.
Irene McDermott, charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited her collateral by failing to appear.
Harry S. Crapo, charged with disorderly conduct and vagrancy, had his case continued until Wednesday morning.
Bessie Brown and Bertie Smith, charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited their collateral by failing to appear.
Albert Johnson, colored, charged with assaulting Nellie Brooks, was fined $5.
John Coleman and George Ford, both colored, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each.
Kitty Arnold, charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited her collateral by failing to appear.
Georgianna Thornton, and Ida Hawkins, both colored, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $2.50 each.
Joseph Burke charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, had his case continued.
In the reviewing stand was a notable gathering. In the place of honor was the apostolic delegate and with him were Rev. Father J. T. McNicholas, O. P., editor of the Holy Name Journal of New York; Dr. Lockert, of the Sulpicians; Dr. Soleau, of the Marist Seminary; Dr. Elliott of the Apostolic Mission House; Dr. Waldron, of the Dominican House; Dr. Kennedy, of the Dominican House of Studies; Mgr. Lee, of St. Mathews; Mgr. Cerretti, secretary to the Apostolic Delegate; Rev. Eugene McDonnell; Father O'Connor Mgr. Adolph, of Buffalo; Very Rev. Father Donlan, of Georgetown University; Dr. Kirby, representing the rector of the Catholic University; J. C. Brennan, of Mexico City, president of the Holy Name Society there, and others high in the church.
The men who invests in goods must want money bad.
